Fr. Canela's Message

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Today we celebrate the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

My sisters and brothers in Christ, Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her. As we know, the Lord Jesus is inviting all of us to choose the better part: Listen to Him and don't get so caught up in doing everything else! My friends in Christ, we like Martha, are called to work hard serving others with love and kindness but also, we're supposed to do it with the spirit of Mary. That's what the sanctification of our work is all about, to have Martha's hands and Mary's heart. Each of us is called to work as hard as Martha, out of love and compassion for God and others, and be like Mary, the example of a life with Jesus at the center. So today, we, too, like Mary, have listened at Jesus' feet while he has fed us with his word. We ask him to give us the courage to reorder our priorities in our lives. Jesus is the one thing necessary. Mary chose the better part. Now let us ask her to intercede for us from before Jesus' feet in heaven for the grace to make the same choice today, tomorrow, and each day going forward.

If we recognize Christ in the other, all the other details of hospitality will take care of themselves.

With love,
Fr. Canela

Eucharist Revival

The vision for this National Eucharistic Revival is: "to inspire a movement of Catholics across the United States who are healed, converted, formed and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist – and who are then sent out on a mission 'for the life of the world.'" Bishop Hanefeldt

In Memory

Please remember in your prayers
All the departed especially: Robert Melgoza
May he rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

It is good to be return to Nebraska. My heart surgery at the Frankel Cardiovascular Center in Ann Arbor, Michigan on May 26th went well. The doctors told me that it would take a number of months to continue healing and to feel the full benefit of the surgery.

I am grateful to Dr. Bolling and his team also the staff at the hospital for great care. My life was micro-managed for a month of therapy while staying at the home of my sister Linda and husband David and my niece Carla. With some medical background, they took great care of me ,and I cannot express my gratitude enough to you for all your prayers and well wishes. Your prayers made a big difference Thank you.

Of course I returned by plane with a lot of medications in plastic bottles inside two large plastic bags in my carry-on luggage. I was very concerned that the TSA security inspection at the airport would suspect me of dealing in drugs. But all went well.

Blessings to you, Fr. Dave Rykwalder

Who Am I to Judge? with Dr. Edward Sri

In this small group study program featuring Edward Sri, we'll explore the classical view of morality and find that it's not merely a set of guiding principles for theoretical situations—it is an entire way of life. What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone, all the time?

Today's Readings

First Reading — Abraham and Sarah show hospitality to messengers of the LORD (Genesis 18:1-10a).
Psalm — He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord (Psalm 15).
Second Reading — The mystery hidden from generations past has been manifested; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory (Colossians 1:24-28).
Gospel — Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. Mary has chosen the better part (Luke 10:38-42).

PRAYER AND SERVICE

How do we bring balance and joy to our lives of prayer and service to our loving God?
 In the Gospel today, Jesus tells Martha that her concern about doing the right thing as dictated by Jewish tradition might not be the best use of her energies. Her sister, Mary, who sits in rapt attention at Jesus' feet, should not be rebuked. Is Jesus trying to show Martha that she needs to make time for her spiritual nourishment?
 Abraham and Sarah in the first reading seem to be just like Martha. And yet Abraham's eager welcome and joyful serving of his "visitors" seems almost spiritual. How like Paul, in the second reading, rejoicing in his service to the gospel!
 We hear in the psalm that those who do justice will live in the Lord's presence. Prayer and service—what greater joy could there be? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Mensaje Del Padre Canela

16° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
Hoy celebramos el 16° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario.

Mis hermanas y hermanos en Cristo, María ha escogido la mejor parte y no se la quitarán. Como sabemos, el Señor Jesús nos está invitando a todos a elegir la mejor parte: ¡Escúchelo y no se deje atrapar por hacer todo lo demás! Mis amigos en Cristo, nosotras como Martha, estamos llamadas a trabajar duro sirviendo a los demás con amor y amabilidad, pero también, debemos hacerlo con el espíritu de María. De eso se trata la santificación de nuestro trabajo, de tener las manos de Marta y el corazón de María. Cada uno de nosotros está llamado a trabajar tan duro como Marta, por amor y compasión por Dios y por los demás, y ser como María, el ejemplo de una vida con Jesús en el centro. Así también nosotros hoy, como María, hemos escuchado a los pies de Jesús mientras nos ha alimentado con su palabra. Le pedimos que nos dé el valor de reordenar las prioridades de nuestra vida. Jesús es lo único necesario. María eligió la mejor parte. Ahora pidámosle que interceda por nosotros ante los pies de Jesús en el cielo por la gracia de hacer la misma elección hoy, mañana y cada día en adelante.

Si reconocemos a Cristo en el otro, todos los demás detalles de la hospitalidad se arreglarán solos.

Con amor,
Padre Canela

Palabras de Apreciación del P. Dave Rykwald

Es bueno volver a Nebraska después de mi cirugía de corazón en el Centro Cardiovascular Frankel en Ann Arbor, Michigan el 26 de mayo. Todo salió bien. Los doctores me dijeron que tomaría unos cuantos meses en continuar sanando y sentir el beneficio completo de la cirugía. Estoy agradecido con el doctor Bolling y su equipo y personal por su excelente cuidado. Mi vida estuvo dirigida por un mes de terapia mientras me hospedaba en la casa de mi hermana Linda y su esposo David y mi sobrina Carla. Con algunos antecedentes médicos, me cuidaron muy bien. No puedo expresar mi gratitud con todos ustedes por todas sus oraciones y buenos deseos. Sus oraciones hicieron una gran diferencia. Gracias. Por su puesto que regrese por avión con un montón de medicamento en botellas de plástico dentro de dos bolsas de plástico grandes en mi equipaje de mano. Me preocupaba mucho que la inspección de seguridad de la TSA en el aeropuerto tuviera sospecha que está traficando con drogas. Pero todo salió bien. Muchas bendiciones para ustedes, P. Dave Rykwald.
